I would just like to say thank you to all the people who assisted in creating this book. Ed Ziegler, thank you for being a supportive and proud advisor. Emmy and Frank, thank you for being understanding and helping me with any bump that may have gotten in the way. My staff: Claire and Joe, thank you for always going above and beyond my expectations and always being positive. Morgan and Ed, thank you for your photography skills and helping me when we were in a bind. Dan and Jill, you both have been with me the longest and I thank you so much for being my "go-to" guy and gal. I now leave next year's book with you two; I know you'll make me proud.

And to the seniors. My senior class. I know you'll agree with me when I say college went by way too fast. Four years ago we were unknowing freshmen, without a care in the world, about to start a new chapter in our lives. Well, that chapter has now come to an end, but with the knowledge, growth, and experiences that we've had at Rowan, I know that each of us will make the next chapter in our lives even better than the last. Class of 2009, I wish you all the luck in the world. Please enjoy life and all it has to offer. Thank you for making my four years here at Rowan an amazing one.

Thank you,
Dayna Silver

Dear Allison,

We are so proud of you and marvel at your accomplishments. We eagerly await what lies ahead as you continue to pursue your goals. No matter where life takes you, know that we will always love and support you.

We love you.

Mom, Dad, Emily & Chris

Dear Allison,

Congratulations on your monumental achievements. Keep believing in yourself. May all your dreams come true.

Love, Grandma and Grandpa

Morgan Reedes..... Vice President for Campus Awareness and Community Engagement

Congrats Mere!!

We're so proud of you and everything that you've accomplished so far in life. Ever since you're early years school, you always kept a smile on our face because you have always done extremely well with your academics. We knew right then you would continue on with much success in your works. We're so proud of you becoming the FIRST in the family to receive a Bachelor's Degree! Despite all you've gone through over the years, you worked hard and hung in there. Even when you were going through it with your ankle problems, you'd managed to still WALK right out the door everyday to go to class. We always admired your capabilities of doing what your mind and heart desires. You deserve everything the world is willing to offer you. You've motivated and influenced those in the family and your own community, Camden, to keep pushing for higher education. Soon, you'll continue your journey of achievements, and strive to receive your Master's in Higher Education. Your family and loved ones will be right there with support. May God continue to bless you and be with you throughout your journey to success.

Love You Always,

To my very intelligent and beautiful sister. I am very proud of you for this accomplishment. You worked hard and now you can see the fruits of your hard labor. I know that you will continue to do great things and accomplish your goals. I want you to remember that you are going to have to work hard for anything that is worth having. Mom, Dad, and I are here to support you in all your positive endeavors. Keep up the Good work and keep making us proud. From: Joel

May Goodness, Mercy and Success Chase you down. God Bless you. From: Auntie Helen

May the God of Peace, Prosperity, Wellness, Health, Stability and Serenity enfold you in His arms. May His Son Jesus, our Savior deliver you onto greatness, victory and wonderful accomplishments for His Honor. May the Holy Spirit, your Advocate and Counselor, be with you always in all spaces of time and to eternity. May the Holy Spirit guide your steps, provide you with shelter and protection unceasingly. And may the Blessed Mother, to whom we all call, smile upon you with grace and kindness. May you never know want nor need. And may Almighty God bless you, keep you and may His face shine upon you always. Psalm 23,27 and 91 apply. Grandad: We are all so proud and acknowledge your success. From: Mom and Dad

Congratulations Kelly!

We are so very proud of you. It's time to share your talents with others. We wish you happiness and success in all you do.

Love you very much!

Mom, Dad, Brian & Danny

Caitlin Marie Powell, BA

Your graduation is a special time to enjoy your journey from an adorable baby to a beautiful woman.

To acknowledge all that you've done, all that you are.

May you enjoy the happiness of today and the opportunities of tomorrow.

We're so very proud of you.

Congratulations,

Love,

John, Mom, Christina, Courtney & Colette

Dearest Sara,

You are almost there Congratulations!

Remember how nervous you were that first day?

But assimilation was quick and thorough;
academic success was a bit more gradual, but constant and then exceptional. You had a plan and never faltered in its execution.

I am very proud of your achievements, your personal growth, and what a fine "adult" you have become. These will serve you well in graduate school and whatever else you want to achieve. I know you can and I know you will.

All my love, always

Mom

Dear Annette,
Congratulations.

You are truly a daughter to be proud of. Your academic achievements have been wonderful thanks to your hours and hours of studying. All this while keeping up your dedication to field hockey and lacrosse.

From when you were a baby, walking at nine months, then dance and gymnastics and on to piano lessons at age six, Dad and I knew you would do well. You are a strong minded independent young woman. Stay that way and I know you will have continued success in your future schooling and career.

Follow your dreams. Believe in yourself.

I'm so proud of you. I love you.
